Saratoga, California

Founded over 150 years ago, Saratoga is one of the oldest towns in California and one of the first in the West. Its downtown area is affectionately known by locals as The Village. Visitors are charmed by its quaint shops, antique stores, restaurants and dramatic setting.

The Village is set into a steep hillside at the bottom of a long canyon. On one side of Big Basin Way is a 100 foot drop into lovely spring-fed Saratoga Creek. On the other side of the road is an 80 foot climb to Oak Street, the early residential area of the Village. Saratoga is the only town in the immediate area with this extraordinary landscape, a village on a wooded hillside with a charming creek running through the middle.

Just up the hill from the Village is Hakone Gardens, the oldest authentic Japanese estate in the Western Hemisphere. Beyond that is the Mountain Winery concert venue, as well as the Cinnabar, Cooper-Garrod and Savannah-Chanelle vineyards. Further up Highway 9 is Big Basin Redwoods State Park, California's oldest state park.
